THE FORGOTTEN ONES

WORKSHOP WITH JOSEPH TEBANDEKE (UGA).

The Forgotten Ones is a workshop led by disabled artist Joseph Tebandeke, who dances on crutches. The workshop explores body archives, movement, and belonging. Through dance and storytelling, it celebrates each body's unique history, culture, and spiritual essence. Embracing all bodies and abilities, the workshop focuses on self-discovery, lineage, joy, and community, using movement as a powerful form of expression rooted in African traditions.

Joseph Tebandeke is a dancer and choreographer from Uganda whose work expands dance into contemporary art practices, including drawing and sculpture. Using his body, he challenges dominant ideas of ability. Joseph has worked with Candoco Dance Company (UK), Kampnagel Hamburg (DE), Dschungel Wien (AT), Introdans (NL), and others.
